D. C. MILITARY LEGION FORMALLY ORGANIZED

Col. R. P. Simms Elected Head of New Body—National Guard Army Is Advocated.

The Military Legion, of the District, was organized last night with Col. R. P. Simms as president. Other officers elected were: Vice presidents, W. P. Gallinger, James P. Oyster, P. T. Moran, Representative Dyer, of Missouri; Gen. G. A. Harries, Gen. C. H. Oursand, Capt. Andrew Parker, J. H. Small, Col. Henry May, Col. C. F. Cook, G. W. Evans, and T. M. Gale, secretary. William H. Brown, assistant secretary, Howard Plake, treasurer, Capt. X. F. Roberts, and chaplain, Rev. Walden F. Meyer.

More than 120 persons assembled at the National Guard Armory for the organization meeting. All the men are former members of some national guard or military organization outside of the District. The legion was formed for the purpose of building up the national guard, of which body it will be an auxiliary.

A resolution was adopted calling upon Congress to take immediate action upon the bill providing an armory for the District National Guard. Members of the legion were requested to have similar resolutions introduced and adopted at the earliest possible moment.

Mal Phillips, secretary of the National Rifle Association, announced that the War Department would consider the Military Legion as a rifle club and extend the same courtesies that are extended to other clubs of the same kind.

Following the organization, the members of the legion were the guests of Gen. Harries and Adj. Gen. Harry Cook at a banquet given last night at the hotel.

MERCURY ON JOY RIDE; CITY TO SHIVER TODAY

Prospects of Fifteen Degree Weather This Morning Warns Capital to Prepare for Cold Spell.

Keen wind; tumbling mercury; shivers; that's the way it happened, about as abruptly as it is possible for the cold to come. The mercury fell from 40 to 25 in a matter of hours.

Yesterday noon the mercury took a notion to go on a joy ride and it has not stopped tobogganing yet. Last night at 10 o'clock the temperature was 25, and still dropping, with the prospect of reaching 15 before daylight.

It will be cold all day throughout the Atlantic States. Tomorrow the temperature will rise in the Middle Atlantic States. And it will be fair.
